

Do not stop the federal government regulations of the internet! We as consumers need the protection, a moral government will continue to oversee certain benefits for all. Do not let individual companies make decisions (for profit) at the expense of the general population!